The Parade is Back

Old Home Week events will kick-off with a huge parade down Route 15 on Saturday, July 14. Orrington's Citizen of the Year will also be honored at the parade, which will end at the Calvary Chapel. Start planning your float now! Entry forms will be available in the next mailer.

Rendezvous Returns

The monumental Northeastern Primitive Rendezvous will return to the historic Wiswell Farm all week, with public days on July 14, 15 and 18. Be immersed in pre-1840 history as you stroll through the paths and trails of the village.

At the Curran

The final weekend will also feature activities at the newly expanded Curran Homestead Village living history museum. Events include a bluegrass concert, barbecue and the Giant Yard Sale. The farm will be open for tours and activities during Maine Open Farm Day on Sunday, July 22.

Photo Contest

This year's Photography Contest will once again feature the winning photos in a special anniversary calendar! Photos need to have an Orrington theme but they can be vintage Orrington to current Orrington. The top 13 winners will be placed in the 2019 Orrington Library Calendar that can be pre-purchased during Old Home Week. Start taking or sorting those photos now and get your entries ready for submission.

NEW! The Library also plans on having community events listed in the calendar. Don't miss this wonderful opportunity! The deadline for listing community events is May 31, 2018.

For more information about the Photo Contest deadlines, rules, etc., please give the Public Library call at 207-825-4938 or visit the Orrington Public Library Facebook page.

New Fun Festival

NEW! Orrington Public Library's Book/Craft/Vendor & Food Festival will be held on Saturday, July 14 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. outside the Center Drive School. The Library is very excited to bring homemade goods to the people of Orrington, and beyond. If you make homebaked goods, sell arts or crafts, you should reserve your spot. There will also be vendor spaces available for the Scentsy, Mary Kay and other direct sales, too. These are all first-come, first-servespaces.

Food vendor spaces will also be available for people who have gardens and would like to sell their veggies. This will be held outside the library and it is rain or shine.

The Library is also looking for Orrington authors to feature in the Library for the day. This is a perfect opportunity for our talented local authors and illustrators to meet the public, sell and sign books! If you are interested in participating, please contact Kelly Bay at 207-825-4938.

Library Used Book Sale

The Public Library has extended their popular book sale to include the first Saturday (July 14) of Old Home Week! This is the place to restock your home library! If you would like to donate books, CDs or DVDs for the sale, the Library will happily to accept donations during regular business hours.

If you have any questions or need an application for the above events please give Kelly Bay a call at the Orrington Public Library at 207-825-4938. Updated information can also be found on the Orrington Public Library Facebook page.

Don't Miss the Endless Yard Sale!

The word has spread throughout the state and New England! The Endless Yard Sale is now one of the most anticipated events of our region! Thousands of treasure seekers have made Orrington the best place to find the most incredible bargains!

Last year there were over 100 registered yard sales that drew bargain shoppers from the Canadian Maritimes to Florida! It is estimated these shoppers spent over $100,000 in our town!

If you are planning a yard sale this summer, wait until the weekend of July 20-22 to hold it.

Donations Graciously Accepted

Old Home Week (OHW) can only succeed if we all pitch in. Financial help from our many friends, neighbors and area businesses enables OHW to happen! Participating sponsors will be recognized in some or all of the marketing campaign. This is an awesome opportunity for you, your family or your company to receive positive exposure and help promote the Town of Orrington. For more informations, see our website or contact any of the OHW Committee members if you have any questions or would like to contribute. Checks can be mailed to Keith Bowden, OHW Treasurer, 982 Center Drive, Orrington, Maine 04474

Add Your Event

The OHW Committee is also looking for businesses, organizations and folks to host events! It is only with the assistance of local businesses, organizations and families that the entire week can be filled with the wonderful activities our residents and visitors have come to expect.

OHW is the perfect vehicle to raise awareness of your organization's cause and/or fundraise at the same time! If your organization would like to host an event, please let the OHW Committee know.
