

ADVERTISE IN THE 2016 NEPR GATE BOOK

The National Rendezvous and Living History Foundation's (NRLHF) Northeastern Primitive Rendezvous (NEPR) will be held this year in Orrington, Maine from July 15th to 22nd.

What is the gate book? A multiple page booklet containing information on the daily schedules, seminars, competitions, rules, and regulations for a week's worth of exciting activities.

The gate book is provided free to all NEPR registered participants.

Your advertisement will reach this select group of living history buffs, reenactors, and muzzleloading sport enthusiasts who will be interested in firearms, accoutrements, leather goods, books, and other items that relate to the pre-1840 era of North American history. We expect to have participants from all over New England and eastern Canada.

See the attached rate sheet for specifics on ad sizes and prices.

Ads will be laid out on a first come basis.

Because we are a non-professional volunteer group, we appreciate it if you provide your ad layout or business card in the proper size. A jpg format is preferred. Artwork (ad or business card or logo/art) must be at least 240 dpi. Some software will scan or save using 72 dpi. Make sure to increase this resolution setting when you create the jpg.

Ad copy and payment (checks only, made out to NRLHF / NEPR 2016) must be received before the deadline of May 1, 2016. Please note that mailing time to the backwaters of Maine may be longer than you think, so send your copy in early.

A prize of equal value to the ad price may be accepted. Please describe the prize, its retail value, plus how and when the prize will be delivered.
